

Dear guests,

As of January 2024, Kenya has changed its entry regulations. Official visas are no longer necessary to enter the country, but you need to apply for an electronic Travel Authorisation (eTA) before the start of your holiday. Applications can be done online, and we created this document to help you through the process.

It's recommended to apply 2 weeks before arrival for your eTA, as it will be valid for ninety days from the date of issue. The standard processing time is 3 workdays.

Please note:

- All visitors (including infants and children) must have an approved eTA.
- An eTA costs 30 USD plus bank fees per person and is valid for three months.
- Take into account that you are travelling to Kenya, where things might work a little differently than what you are used to. Computerized systems for example don't always work properly, and you might have to try several times. We usually advise to just shrug about these and other setbacks, say TIA (This is Africa!), laugh about it and try again!

Wondering about the East Africa Community Visa?

If you travel to several East African countries in one holiday, you can apply for an East Africa Community Visa (the EAC visa) instead of a visa per country. The EAC visa is a so-called joint tourist visa for people travelling to Rwanda, Uganda and Kenya (but not Tanzania), and it's issued in the first country you enter.

If, for example, you travel from Uganda to Rwanda and Kenya, you apply for the EAC visa in Uganda as this is your point of entry. Once on holiday, the same visa allows you to enter Rwanda and Kenya.

The EAC visa allows single entry into the East African Community and multiple trips between the countries. The cost is USD 100. If you want to apply for the EAC visa, you can simply choose this option on the official Ugandan and Rwandan immigration websites for visa applications.

Going to Kenya first?

If, in the above example, you travel to Kenya first, you cannot apply for the EAC visa to cover your whole trip. Even though Kenya accepts the EAC visa as a valid visa when coming from Uganda or Rwanda, the Kenyan government gives no possibility to apply for it. Thus, if Kenya is the first destination of your trip, you have to apply for an eTA (electronic Travel Authorization) for Kenya first, then apply for a visa per country or an EAC visa for the other two countries.

Also, if your itinerary includes Tanzania, you always apply for a separate visa for that country.
